A sticker added at some point below the FLH at Graceland also reads "Ride With Pride - 1776 Bicentennial 1976." Harley-Davidson actually released a version called the "Liberty Edition" that year to especially commemorate the Bicentennial. Elvis bought one of those in March of that year but it was equipped with the Liberator fairing. The company was still owned by AMF during this time but by the mid seventies most of the quality control issues associated with them had been contained.
