Recipes and cookbooks, meals and mouthfuls have framed the way Candace Walsh sees the world for as long as she can remember, from her frosting-sparkled childhood to her meat-eschewing college years to her post-college phase as a devoted Martha Stewart's Entertaining disciple. In Licking the Spoon, Walsh tells how, lacking role models in her early life, she turned to cookbook authors real and fictitious (Betty Crocker, Martha Stewart, Mollie Katzen, Daniel Boulud, and more) to learn, unlearn, and redefine her own womanhood. Through the lens of food, Walsh recounts her life's journey?from unhappy adolescent to straight-identified wife and mother to divorcée in a same-sex relationship?and she throws in some dishy revelations, a-ha moments, take-home tidbits, and mouth-watering recipes for good measure. A surprising and rambunctiously liberating tale of cooking and eating, loving and being loved, Licking the Spoon is the story of how?accompanied by pivotal recipes, cookbooks, culinary movements, and guides?one woman learned that you can not only recover but blossom after a comically horrible childhood if you just have the right recipes, a little luck, and an appetite for life's next meal.

Suitable for children in Year 2 (age 6), A Lick of the Spoon is one of nine anthologies from the Cambridge Reading Poetry strand, compiled by Richard Brown and Kate Ruttle. Warning: these poems may make you feel hungry! A Lick of the Spoon is a collection of poems about all kinds of food and drink such as pancakes, ice creams, and peanut butter sandwiches, all illustrated in mouth-watering detail by Rowan Barnes-Murphy. Includes poems by Errol Lloyd, Irene Yates, and Christina Rossetti. Cambridge Reading at Key Stage 1 (Years 1 and 2) offers fiction, non-fiction, poetry and plays to introduce children to a variety of text types, authors and illustrators and provide a firm base for wider reading.

Cambridge Reading is a major reading scheme which provides stimulating books and support materials for the teaching of reading and the development of literacy throughout the primary years.

The A Lick of the Spoon Big Book Literacy Pack 2ed comprises teacher's notes, 6 pupils' books and 1 Big Book version of the Towards Independence book, A Lick of the Spoon. The teacher's notes contain separate notes for guided and shared reading and have been completely rewritten.

"Made with love means I licked the spoon and kept stirring." Cooking is a passion for many of our CWA members and this recipe book collects some of our favourite recipes, some passed down through many generations. We hope that these recipes bring you as much joy as they do to us. Keep on cooking with love, and don't forget to lick the spoon!
