An agency agreement is a legal document that binds two individual partners: the principal and the agent. The principal is the person doing the hiring. The agent is the individual who will complete the tasks on behalf of the principal. The agreement often creates a legal relationship and type of proxy status between two parties.

Agency Agreement: Everything You Need to Know

An agency agreement is a contract where you (the principal) appoint an agent to carry out certain tasks on your behalf. The contract will bind the agent ' s actions to the principal entity, essentially making it as if the agent ' s actions were originally done by you. You can think of it as appointing a right-hand man for certain specific tasks.
