Dear readers, I did not like Branded by Abi Ketner and Missy Kalicicki. Not in the least. When I first read the book blurb, I got excited. A dystopian novel set in an ultra-religious society where people are imprisoned for violating the seven deadly sins, a main character falsely accused and imprisoned for lust, a conflicted guard mysteriously ...

Branded is a fast paced 359 page book that you will not want to put down. I do however recommend this book for those ages 17 and up, a mature, audience if you will. There are some thematic elements that may not be appropriate for younger readers, but you would have to talk to your parent or guardian, about reading it.
