In general, I've seen Dave Ramsey tend to be very negative toward people, often for no reason, as they come to him seeking financial advice. Financial Peace University is in many ways an extension of his personality. If you don't like Dave Ramsey's personality and don't want to be a part of having that approach (he's rude and calls people "stupid" way too often on his show) a part of your effort to become financially better off, you might want to look elsewhere
