Flower Arranging Basics: Choose A Unique Container. Most floral arrangements go inside vases, but if you want to do something a bit more unique, consider looking for alternative containers. Anything from a vintage watering can to a mason jar can be used as a container, so use your imagination. Just be sure to thoroughly clean the container prior to putting flowers inside in order to prevent bacteria growth. Find the Right Flowers. Take your time when choosing the flowers for your arrangement.

Begin your flower arrangement with the largest blooms, placing the bigger flowers in the center and working outwards with the smaller flowers for a more balanced, proportional look. Stick the stems into the floral foam as you build your bouquet, making sure you vary the flower varieties and colors so you don't have the same blooms concentrated in one spot.
