Heartbeat by Elizabeth Scott - Goodreads

A heartbeat is the only thing keeping Emma's mom alive. She's brain dead with no chance of recovery. She's only being kept "alive" to support the life of the infant growing within her. This was Dan, Emma's stepdad's decision, and Emma is beyond angry at him and the rest of the world for this.

Don't be fooled by this cover. While it does have a romance subplot, this is a novel about grief and loss and family and not just a teenage love story.

Heartbeat (eBook) by Elizabeth Scott (Author)

Heartbeat considers a very specific medical situation, one which has been in the media recently, involving keeping a pregnant woman who has been diagnosed as "brain dead" on life support so that her unborn baby might have a chance to survive to viability. The concept of brain death is something Scott never directly addresses in her novel but it is central to the story and important to understand.

LibrisNotes: Heartbeat by Elizabeth Scott

Anyways, Elizabeth Scott does a superb job with Emma and her voice in Heartbeat. I wasn't entirely sure how I would feel about the romance in Heartbeat. Y'all, it's sweet and quiet and a budding sort of romance.
