At over 600 pages, the new book, Heartstone, is one of his most imposing, but after a challenging, slowish start (something frequently attempted by Sansom -- like many good writers, he often demands a certain patience from his readers), the customary comprehensive grip is rigorously maintained. The invasion of France mounted by Henry VIII has been a disaster, and, in retaliation, an imposing French fleet is making preparations to cross the Channel.

Heartstone (The Shardlake Series): A Book by C. J. Sansom
Heartstone, the concluding episode in the Shardlake series is set in the year 1545 at the time of King Henry V111's war against the French and depicts the sinking of the Mary Rose battleship. Once again an extremely slow start which only gets going about 70% in to the book but as in it's predecessors has a spectacular ending if a little drawn out this time.
