Henna House by Nomi Eve is a beautifully written story of a young woman growing up in Yemen during the 1920s and 1930s. Right away, I was transported back in time to a very primitive world, a world without any kind of modern day conveniences, a world where religion and superstitions played a central role in the lives of the people.

Henna House by Nomi Eve - Goodreads

Nomi Eve's lavishly imagined account begins in Palestine in 1837, with the tale of the irrepressible family matriarch, Esther, who was lured by the smell of baking bread into an affair with the local baker. Esther passes on her passionate nature to her son, Eliezer, whose love for the forbidden Golda threatened to tear the family apart.
