The lone wolf is often discussed in spiritual circles because many spiritual seekers relate to the journey that a lone wolf must take to redefine their identity and place in the world. The lone wolf represents spiritual independence and breaking off from the status quo in order to find one's inner truth and align with one's highest self. The lone wolf makes the hard decision to walk alone, instead of staying with the pack that is holding them back in life.

A lone wolf is a wolf that lives independently rather than with others as a member of a pack. Lone wolves are typically either older female wolves driven from the pack, perhaps by the breeding male, or young adults in search of new territory. Many young female wolves between the ages of one to four years old leave their family to search for a pack of their own.

~~Lone wolf (trait) — Wikipedia~~

Once the Lone Wolf has taken the oath, he then prepares himself for the ensuing battle, both mentally and physically, rejecting any company from others. On the eve of battle, it is often a sight of great awe as Lone Wolves advance on the enemy, their gaze fixed upon a single target that they will stop at nothing to slaughter. Many Lone Wolves do not fulfill their own self-prophecy and are inevitably slain in the process, being rejoined with their fallen wolf pack with a fine tale to tell.

At a minimum, individuals labeled lone wolves are often in communication with other militants, sometimes using encrypted services that are difficult to detect and decipher. There is a danger in rushing to label operatives as disconnected from others, as doing so can cause analysts to overlook the networks that facilitate and encourage attacks.
