RHETORIC VS. REALITY - Earthjustice

Reality is raw and unedited, a reflection of the mess that we call existence. Rhetoric is select aspects of it, which are elevated in tone and quality if not totally because they are given linguistic makeovers — usually just because someone has a fleeting idea that any topic deserves more of our focus/attention.

Rhetoric or Reality? | Freedom's Discourse

Abstract It is common in discussions about human resource management (HRM) to distinguish between “ rhetoric ” and what is regarded as a clearly separate “ reality ” . This is naï ve in that it fails to recognize the way those researching the human aspects of management and those practically involved in it influence each other.
