The Ascent Of A Leader

Solidly based on spiritual values, The Ascent of a Leader presents a process for developing character and influence in the context of community amid the kind of relationships and envi- ronment where character wins out, even in the face of setbacks and against the temptations to take shortcuts. Character is crucial, the authors assert, because it "empowers our capacities while keeping them in check.

The Ascent of a Leader: How Ordinary Relationships Develop ...

The Ascent of a Leader is written for ordinary people-mothers, husbands, bosses, secretaries, pastors, teachers, and students-who want to develop extraordinary character, find and follow God's plan for their lives, and lead others where they need to go.

The Ascent of a Leader: Thrall, Bill, McNicol, Bruce ...

The author of The Ascent of a Leader deals carefully with the "espoused values" of the leader and the careful integration, or congruence of these with expected behavior, or "outcome." Much like the historical Greek culture of old, an unhealthy distinction is often made between the material world and the spiritual world recognized as dualistic thinking.

The Ascent of a Leader Experience Guide by Bill Thrall

It ' s not just about content. It ' s also about the conversation. The Ascent was founded on the realization that there exists a gap between what is required and what is expected of ministry leaders. The key to The Ascent is transparency. Great content is everywhere...books, blogs, keynotes and sermons. What leaders needs is transparent conversation.

Ascent of a Leader - David Mays

The Ascent of a Leader looks primarily into the hidden character of the aspiring Leader as the proper catalyst or compelling rationale for success, within the confines of Scripture. Along these lines, we know that people follow for different reasons. Arthur Friedman captures the spirit of followership stating, "Men of genius are admired.
