Evolutionary Leaders: In Service to Conscious Evolution

Evolutionary leaders prevent our dreams from being forever locked in potential reality. Just as potential energy is stored within an object until the object moves, potential reality is locked within us until someone, the evolutionary leader in this case, moves us to activate it. To manifest our idea in the real world.

Evolutionary leadership theory analyses leadership from an evolutionary perspective. Evolutionary psychology assumes that our thinking, feeling and doing are the product of innate psychological mechanisms. These mechanisms have evolved because they enable people to effectively deal with situations that (directly or indirectly) are important for survival and reproduction (reproductive success).
