If I were to pick up what I found most valuable, it would be the combination of productivity tips and the Islamic perspective. For a Muslim the definition of success is to be saved from the hellfire and entered into Jannah. So our aim to be more productive must take that into account, which is missing in most productivity books out there.

You should accept Allah's decree and be fruitful and productive where you are. And what's more important than being productive and achieving big dreams and aspirations is Allah accepting your achievements and putting it on your scales on the Day of Judgment". This is something to ponder as we work tirelessly to lead productive lives.
