Or as Superman says quite clearly in the 1978 film, "I never lie," saying this immediately after repeating that he is here "to fight for truth, justice, and the American way." Justice means you strive to administer the rules fairly so that the innocent are protected and the guilty are punished properly. It also means that you treat others justly, with respect and kindness, while defiantly standing up to those who would do the weak harm. The phrase "the American Way" however is ...
