and buy a bargain home. Repossessed properties are almost never advertised and there is no information both locally and nationally. This makes it hard to find that below market value property as neither auctioneers, estate agents or lenders are willing to state a property as repossessed. This book is intended to guide you in the process of buying repossessed property giving practical and useful tips. The book will give you the knowledge in knowing where to look, how to beat competitors, how to negotiate with estate agents and lenders and how to buy from auction. The book explains what a repossessed property is and the process of repossession, the bidding process, how it is advertised after a bid is made and what problems you face when moving in to the property.
